Religious Exemption from Immunization

North Carolina law, as described below, allows students to be exempt from vaccine requirements if the student has religious beliefs that conflict with immunization. If you wish for your student to be exempt from vaccine requirements, please complete this religious exemption form.

North Carolina General Statute § 130A-157.

If the bona fide religious beliefs of an adult or the parent, guardian or person in loco parentis of a child are contrary to the immunization requirements contained in this Chapter, the adult or the child shall be exempt from the requirements. Upon submission of a written statement of the bona fide religious beliefs and opposition to the immunization requirements, the person may attend the college, university, school or facility without presenting a certificate of immunization. (1957, c. 1357, s. 1; 1959, c. 177; 1965, c. 652; 1971, c. 191; 1979, c. 56, s. 1; 1983, c. 891, s. 2; 1985, c. 692, s. 2; 2002-179, s. 17.)
